

Waiting for Treatment and Self-Management Workshop

Are you or members of your family or friends waiting for treatment and care for any of these services?

- Cardiology
- Cancer
- Ophthalmology
- Orthopaedics
- Children and Young People

Do join a workshop bringing people Waiting for Treatment and Self-Management and the NHS together to develop better approaches in your community. We would love it if you could come with the people who are helping you at home.

You will meet clinicians and health professionals from Guy's and St Thomas', King's College Hospital, local community and primary care services, and together discuss how to better manage Waiting and Self-Management services.
